

For this story of Dave Galbenski and Mark Dybis, here are social media post templates designed to inspire, inform, and engage readers on the significance of living liver donations.

Template 1: Instagram/Facebook Story

- Image: A touching image of Dave and Mark together, possibly showing a visual contrast of before and after the surgery.
- Text Overlay: "A Bond Beyond Family ❤️ Mark Dybis stepped up in a big way by donating his left lobe to save his brother-in-law, Dave Galbenski. Their story of hope & healing began in Detroit, November 2019. #LivingDonorHero #LiverTransplantAwareness"
- Stickers/GIFs: Use liver or love-themed stickers, and a swipe-up link to more detailed information about living liver donations.

Template 2: Twitter Post

- Text: "In the face of a rare autoimmune disease, Mark Dybis gave the ultimate gift to his brother-in-law, Dave Galbenski: a chance at life. Their living liver transplant story from Detroit, November 2019, is nothing short of heroic. ❤️ #LivingDonor #LiverHealth"
- Image: An emotional image capturing a moment between Dave and Mark, showcasing their bond.

Template 3: Facebook/LinkedIn Post

- Image: A photo featuring Dave and Mark post-recovery, looking healthy and happy.
- Text: "November 2019 marked a new beginning for Dave Galbenski, thanks to his brother-in-law Mark Dybis's incredible act of love and courage. By donating the left lobe of his liver, Mark helped Dave combat a rare autoimmune disease, showcasing the powerful impact of living liver donation. Let's spread the word and inspire more stories like theirs. #LivingDonorDay #StoryOfHope #LiverTransplantAwareness [Link to full story or donation info]"

Template 4: Instagram Carousel Post

- Image 1: A symbol representing liver health or a before surgery photo.
- Image 2: A photo of Dave and Mark together, perhaps in a hospital setting.
- Image 3: A celebratory picture of their lives post-operation.
- Caption: "From a critical diagnosis to a story of survival and gratitude. Swipe to see the journey of Dave Galbenski, saved by his brother-in-law Mark Dybis through a living liver donation in Detroit, November 2019. ❤️ Every picture tells a part of their powerful tale. #LiverDonation #HeroesAmongUs #GalbenskiDybisJourney"

Template 5: Instagram/Facebook Video Post

- Video Content: A compelling montage of photos and video clips chronicling Dave and Mark's journey, including hospital moments, recovery, and celebrations, with a voiceover or text overlay explaining the significance of their story.
- Caption: "👥 Witness the incredible journey of survival, love, and selflessness between Dave Galbenski and Mark Dybis. When faced with a life-threatening liver disease, Mark didn't hesitate to donate part of his liver to his brother-in-law, Dave, in November 2019. Their story is a beacon of hope and a call to action. Consider becoming a living donor today. #LivingLiverDonor #GalbenskiDybisStory #GiveLife"

Each of these templates aims to capture the essence of Dave and Mark's inspiring story, encouraging others to consider the impactful decision of living organ donation. Always adapt the content to fit the specific requirements and audience engagement strategies of each social media platform.